Owner

Maybe change the commit message to reflect that we are only talking about the order of elements in paths, and not between rows in the execution result

Mats-SX changed the title from Order of results is now always the written order of identifiers in the query to Order of path elements is now always the written order of identifiers in the query. Apr 22, 2015

Collaborator

I changed "results" to "path elements" in commit message and PR title.
EDIT: Also in CHANGES.txt.
